THE "DO GOOD" CAMPUS

The University of Maryland commits to becoming a global leader in advancing social change, philanthropy and nonprofit leadership with its Do Good Initiative.

Building on the School of Public Policy's Center for Philanthropy and Nonprofit Leadership and its annual Do Good Challenge, the effort amplifies the power of Terps as agents of social innovation and supports the university's mission of service.

We:

- Created the Do Good Institute to serve as the campus hub of social innovation;
- Developed a Do Good Accelerator to scale up the impact of student ventures;
- Cultivate new research on philanthropy, nonprofits and social change;
- Expand opportunities for students to learn about and practice giving back.

Our Do Good campus will lead to a Do Good world.

WINTER COMMENCEMENT / DECEMBER 18, 2018

Congratulations on your graduation from the University of Maryland! This is a milestone that should bring great pride to you, your family and friends.

I am certain that your time at the University of Maryland has been filled with fearless ideas, friendships and opportunities. As president of this great university, I want to express my hope that you have explored new areas and discovered new talents. The world is waiting for you to share them.

As you move beyond the campus, I hope you will remember the intellectual curiosity and drive that inspired your time here. Graduating does not mean that learning has come to an end. It means that you are now equipped to take charge of your own learning. This is a privilege and a profound responsibility. Society's advancement will depend upon your knowledge and your leadership.

As you leave us, you can take with you the pride we all feel in your accomplishments as scholars, artists, athletes and leaders. You have enriched the university's life and have helped it climb to a new level of distinction. We welcome you into the alumni family, a truly special group.

I hope that you stay connected to the University of Maryland and take full advantage of being an alum. Stay involved with us and help new generations of students develop their futures. You can do this by returning to campus often, starting with Maryland Day 2019, on April 27.

You have my very best wishes for all your future plans. Make your mark. But wherever your future path takes you, please remember that you will always be a TERP. I hope you will always stay in touch. Go Terps!

Sincerely,

Wallace D. Loh, President

On behalf of the University of Maryland Alumni Association, congratulations on your milestone achievement!

Today you become members of a distinguished group: University of Maryland alumni. Like you, we all exhibited discipline, commitment, determination and leadership in our academic studies as well as in our campus and community activities. After departing College Park and applying these qualities in other aspects of our lives, we saw doors open wide to opportunities once unimaginable. You, too, will carry these qualities, and we trust they will lead to great accomplishments and success.

But your journey is not over with Maryland; it is just beginning. You now play the important role of alumnus, a role that is critical to the success of this great institution. I encourage you to make a commitment to your alma mater by becoming a lifetime member of the Alumni Association. By becoming a Terp for life, you will leave your own legacy and make a contribution that will enhance the experiences of those who follow.

There's no better time to support your alma mater, which has launched its most ambitious fundraising campaign ever. Fearless Ideas: The Campaign for Maryland aims to raise $1.5 billion to elevate and expand our mission of service, enhance our academic distinction and bolster our leading-edge research enterprise.

The Alumni Association can help you stay in touch with friends you made on campus, prepare you for your career through networking opportunities and keep you informed about alumni and university news.

It is our hope that as an alumnus, you will display your degree proudly and continue the tradition of demonstrating to the world the high-quality education it represents. In turn, Maryland will continue to educate the country's brightest students, pursue cutting-edge research, encourage innovation and entrepreneurship, explore the arts and defend our athletics titles. Maryland will continue to be fearless in everything it does and will always make you proud to be a Terp!

Stay active, stay informed, stay connected. And stay fearless.

Sincerely,

Kirk D. Bell '88

Speaker Biographies

REHAN STATON
STUDENT SPEAKER

Getting up at dawn every day to ride a trash truck or refurbish dumpsters to help support his family before attending classes at UMD, Rehan Staton would repeat a famous mantra from Muhammad Ali: "Don't quit. Suffer now and live the rest of your life as a champion."

And he didn't quit. Despite facing obstacles that could have wilted anyone's determination, Staton used the energy he once expended on martial arts tournaments to earn a history degree and propel himself instead toward a legal career.

Growing up in Bowie, Md., with a loving and supportive single father, Staton overcame negative expectations such as hearing someone say he was more likely to end up in jail than a college classroom. Although he once dreamed of becoming a professional boxer, rotator cuff injuries derailed his athletic pursuits. Instead, after graduating from high school, he got a job at a trucking company, hauling trash and painting dumpsters.

His co-workers had a simple message: Don't stay here with us. Go to college.

"If it wasn't for them," he says, "I wouldn't have gone to college."

Staton enrolled in 2014 at Bowie State University, then two years later transferred to UMD, succeeding with a 3.84 GPA. Up at 4 a.m. each day to ride a truck or paint, Staton would listen to self-recorded versions of his notes before going to school, and then return to work after class to finish his shift.

"UMD changed my life forever," he says. "It was the greatest decision of my life."

In addition to making the Dean's List every semester at UMD, Staton also served as president of the History Undergraduate Association, the Department of History representative for the College of Arts and Humanities Dean's Advisory Board and the student representative for the College of Arts and Humanities Dean's Cabinet. He was also given the 2017 Office of Multi-ethnic Student Education Academic Excellence Award.

Staton is currently weighing several job opportunities and plans to attend law school in the fall of 2020 and represent ex-convicts and death row inmates.

"I want to advocate for those incarcerated who have experienced injustices and whose voices are often suppressed," he says.

JOHN B. KING JR.
COMMENCEMENT SPEAKER

The life story of John B. King Jr., the 10th U.S. secretary of education and president and CEO of The Education Trust, is a testament to the power of an excellent education and great teachers.

Both of King's parents were career New York City public school educators. They passed away from illness by the time King was 12 years old. King credits his New York City public school teachers — particularly at P.S. 276 and Mark Twain Junior High School — for saving his life by providing him with rich and engaging educational experiences and giving him hope for the future.

King began his career as a high school social studies teacher in Puerto Rico and Boston, Mass., and as a middle school principal, before becoming the first African-American and Puerto Rican to serve as New York State education commissioner. He went on to be U.S. deputy secretary of education, overseeing all policies and programs related to P-12 education, English learners, special education and innovation.

In tapping him to become secretary of education, President Barack Obama called King "an exceptionally talented educator," citing his commitment to "preparing every child for success" and his lifelong dedication to education as a teacher, principal, and leader of schools and school systems.

King now leads The Education Trust, a national nonprofit organization that seeks to identify and close opportunity and achievement gaps, from preschool through college.

King holds a Bachelor of Arts in government from Harvard University, a J.D. from Yale Law School, as well as a Master of Arts in the teaching of social studies and a doctorate in education from Teachers College at Columbia University. He serves as a visiting professor at the University of Maryland's College of Education and is a member of several boards, including those for The Century Foundation, The Robin Hood Foundation, Teach Plus, and The American Museum of Natural History. He also serves on several advisory boards, including former First Lady Michelle Obama's Reach Higher initiative, The Rework America Task Force, The GOOD+ Foundation's Fatherhood Leadership Council, and The National Center for Free Speech and Civic Engagement at the University of California.

King lives in Silver Spring, Md., with his wife (a former kindergarten and first-grade teacher) and his two daughters, who attend local public schools.

Doctoral Degrees

The doctoral degree is the most advanced earned degree conferred by American institutions. There are two distinct types: the practitioner's degree and the research degree. The first type represents advanced training for the practice of various professions, principally doctor of audiology, doctor of medicine, juris doctor, doctor of pharmacy and doctor of veterinary medicine. These degrees do not involve the completion of original research by the student. The University of Maryland, at the professional school in Baltimore, awarded the first two dental degrees on March 9, 1841.

Bachelor's Degrees

The bachelor's degree represents the completion of a four-year course of college-level study and is the oldest academic degree awarded by American institutions of higher learning. Maryland Agricultural College, which later became the University of Maryland, College Park, awarded its first Bachelor of Arts and Bachelor of Science degrees in 1862.

Note: Latin Honors published in the commencement program are tentative and unofficial, pending the submission and calculation of all final grades for the semester of commencement.
